ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING OUTLINING THE ORDER OF PRESENTATIONS FOR SECTION 709.2 ORAL ARGUMENTS

I have received statements and time estimates covering approximately ten parties.¹ The order for opening presentations is as follows: Pacific Bell (Pacific), ¹ The Greenlining Institute and Latinos Issues Forum (Greenlining/LIF); Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA); The Utility Rate Network (TURN); AT&T Communications of California Inc. (AT&T); California Internet Service Providers Association (CISPA); Pac-West Telecomm, Inc. (Pac-West); Sprint Communications Company, LP (Sprint); Working Assets Funding Service, Inc., d/b/a Working Assets Long Distance (Working Assets); WorldCom, Inc. (WorldCom); and XO California, Inc. (XO California).

Greenlining/LIF, ORA, TURN and the remaining submitters, a coalition of carriers.²

Pacific did not submit a statement; however, it has indicated that it will have introductory remarks and an overall summary of its case covering approximately one hour. Greenlining/LIF, ORA and TURN have submitted statements that show that they will be orally summarizing their written Section 709.2 comments. They give time estimates of 5 minutes, 45 minutes and 15 minutes, respectively. The coalition of carriers put forth an outline covering their collective Section 709.2 submissions. The outline details which issues each member will be addressing. They estimate that their entire presentation will take approximately 7-1/2 hours.

To facilitate the flow of these arguments, Pacific will make its rebuttal statements following the conclusion of each segment. For instance, Greenlining/LIF, ORA and TURN will present the first segment on Monday. Pacific will have an opportunity to present its first rebuttal statement addressing the first three presentations once TURN completes its statement. Pacific's additional rebuttal statements may follow the major presentations set out in the coalition of carriers' outline of issues.³

The listing of participating parties set out in this ruling is final. There will not be an opportunity at the start of the oral arguments to add any parties that did not submit a statement on November 28, 2001. However, each party is free to put forth the presenter of its choice to address delineated issues. All participants are again cautioned to confine their presentations to what they submitted in their respective written comments. Finally, I strongly urge each presenter to closely observe the time estimates submitted for the presentations.

² The coalition includes the association of California ISPs.

³ Specifically, after the Authority and Obligation segment (III) and the Section 709.2(c) 1-4 segments (IV through VII).

IT IS SO RULED.

Dated November 30, 2001, at San Francisco, California.
